Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 2815

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.
- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-11,13-17,19-23, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Horiguchi IEDM.

Horiguchi shows a vertical floating gate electrode, vertical control gate, and "horizontal" substrate. Applicant's claims do not structurally distinguish over Horiguchi. The "approximate" claimed dimensions do not structurally distinguish over Horiguchi.

4. Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Horiguchi in view of Watanabe '601 or Hong '213.

Art Unit: 2815

Watanabe teaches control gates on each side of a floating gate and connected with a horizontal portion. Likewise Hong shows similar structure. It would have been obvious to have practiced a similar horizontal connecting portion in a device as Horiguchi to increase the coupling capacitance. Applicant's claims are obvious structure.

5. Claims 1-11,13-17,19-23, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Lin '076.

Lin shows sidewall floating and control gates over a "horizontal" substrate. Applicant's claims are anticipated or obvious over Lin.

6. Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lin in view of Watanabe or Hong.

From Watanabe or Hong it would have been obvious to have practiced control gate on each side of the floating gate of Lin to increase the coupling capacitance. Applicant's claims are obvious structure.

7. Claim 17 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lin or Horiguchi in view of Yang '945.

From Yang it would have been obvious to have practiced floating gates on each side of a control gate to increase coupling, minimize overerase problems, and maintain small cell size, etc. Claim 17 is obvious structure.

8. Claims 1-10,13-15,17,19,21-23, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Yang '945.

Art Unit: 2815

Yang shows vertical gates adjacent a horizontal substrate.

9. Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Watanabe in view of Hong, Lin, or Yang.

Watanabe teaches vertical floating and control gates. From either Hong, Lin, or Yang it would have been obvious to have practiced a design with both the floating and control gates of Watanabe type device over the channel region to control the channel region with both gates. Applicant's claims are obvious structure.

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See Hsu and Hwang.
